

A Week in Beautiful San Miguel de Allende, Travel+Leisure's #1 city

August 23-30, 2019

Beautiful San Miguel de Allende, a Unesco World Heritage city in central Mexico, was voted 2017 and 2018 #1 small city in the world! Its beautiful main plaza is anchored by El Jardín, a leafy square with open-air cafés and the pink Parroquia de San Miguel Arcángel church. A colonial treasure famous for the start of the Mexican revolution and now an ex-Pat artist's colony. San Miguel offers wonderful history, culture, food and art in a lovely setting in the Sierra Madre mountain range. Old haciendas line narrow cobblestone streets that are now restaurants, shops, galleries and private homes with a charming European feel. The town boasts over 350 restaurants, from small Mexican cocinas to gourmet dining with top international chefs.
